POLITICAL.

From the Richmond Whig of Thursday
A Letter from Mr Rives.

The following letter from the Hon Wm C Rives, as will be seen from its face, was written to a personal and political friend in Hanover, but another gentleman having learned in a conversation with Mr Rives that he had written such a letter, containing a full expression of his views on the subject of the Presidential election, has obtained a copy of the letter, with permission to have it published, as the best means of satisfying all inquiries and removing all doubts as to the course Mr Rives will pursue in the approaching contest

WASHINGTON, Jan 1, 1844

My dear Sir—It seems now to be definitively settled that the country is to be called upon to retract the solemn decision pronounced by it in 1840, upon the demerits of Mr Van Buren's administration, and to restore him to power, without a solitary atonement for the past, or pledge of amendment for the future The indications which have been given here, since the assembling of Congress, are too significant to be misunderstood The Convention at Baltimore will have nothing to do but to register and proclaim the edict of the caucus in the Capitol

In this state of things, are we, who have so often testified in the face of the world our deep and earnest convictions of the fatal and demoralizing tendencies of Mr Van Buren's whole system of political action, to stand aside with folded arms, and to shrink into an inglorious, I had almost said treasonable neutrality, because of some differences of opinion on questions of public policy from Mr Clay, which a wise spirit of moderation, and the recognised arbitrament of the public will, are daily narrowing in magnitude and extent? I humbly think not

The election of chief magistrate of the nation is one of those vital processes provided by the constitution of the country for a periodical regeneration of our system, by a fresh infusion into it of the elements of popular health and virtue, in which no good citizen unless under circumstances of a very peculiar character, can properly refuse to take a part, and, to the extent of his influence and example, a decided and efficient part When the vast moral and political influence of the office, as well as its direct attributes of positive and controlling power is considered, it can never be a matter of indifference, or even of an equal balance of countervailing motives of preference or objection, who shall fill it There is always a choice and though the making of that choice may sometimes be embarrassed by conflicting considerations, arising out of a want of entire coincidence of opinion with either of the opposing candidates, it is only the more incumbent upon us to determine our preference with care and deliberation, according to the best lights of our understandings, and, when once conscientiously formed, fearlessly and unhesitatingly to act it out

In the approaching Presidential contest, then, we ought not and cannot be neutral and if, as every thing now indicates is to be the case, that contest shall be between Mr Van Buren and Mr Clay, I have as little hesitation in saying that there is but one line of action by which we can acquit ourselves of the full measure of our duty to the country, and that is, waiving all minor considerations, to give a manly and determined support to Mr Clay in preference to Mr Van Buren For myself, I can conceive of no greater calamity to the nation, or deeper discredit to the cause and very name of popular government, than the re-election of Mr Van Buren would be, after the signal and overwhelming majority by which he was so recently deposed from power, upon the fullest canvass of his measures, policy and conduct

The host of vindictive passions which follow in the train of restored Governments—the crowds of hungry retainers, pleading the merit of past services, who press forward to claim the reward of their fidelity, or indemnity for sacrifices and losses incurred in the common cause—the infatuated and pertinacious attachment to ancient abuses the arbitrary and self willed habits nurtured in the former possession of power—the continued [illegible] favorite but pernicious schemes of policy, have all concurred to give a sort of proverbial currency to the remark of a celebrated English statesman and historian, that the worst and most dangerous of all revolutions is a restoration *

That all these evils would be realized to their [illegible] extent, and in their most unmitigated virulence, in the restoration of Mr Van Buren, no one can doubt who have been attentive observers of the [illegible] and views [illegible] system of party policy exemplified in the creed and conduct of himself and his friends, or who have not forgot [illegible] party rapacity, so boldly emblazoned on the shields of his [illegible] followers, when, approaching "to the victors belong the spoils of victory", so shamelessly pointed to the offices and public trusts of the country as the rightful plunder of political warfare

But, to return to the remark I have already made Could anything inflict a deeper wound on the cause of republican institutions than such a spectacle of levity and instability on the part of the constituent body as would be exhibited in the restoration of Mr Van Buren, after the overwhelming condemnation of his administration pronounced by the almost unanimous electoral voice of the country but three short years ago? Would it not render popular government itself a "by word and taunt among the nations" In 1840 the American people upon the fullest and most deliberate hearing of both sides of the [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] which pronounced it has not [illegible]—and attempts made [illegible] to take back their own settled [illegible] formed judgment, and, in elevating again to the highest [illegible] of the republic the individual whom they had so recently and deliberately deposed, pronounced a flagrant sentence of stultification and incompetence upon themselves I know not in what light other minds may view such a proceeding, but to me it seems a contemptuous sporting with the sovereign constituency of the country—a sheer mockery and insult to the public intelligence

And by what means is Mr Van Buren to be again presented as the legitimate and anointed candidate of the Democratic party? Not certainly by the will of the great body of the party, who, we have every reason to believe, deprecate and deplore the madness and folly of the act, but by the secret and invisible agency of self constituted conclaves and caucusses, controlled with absolute sway by a few bold and adroit political managers I run no risk in saying that if the individuals composing the party throughout the Union could be interrogated, upon the voir dire, to say whom they would prefer as the Presidential nominee of the party, three-fourths of them at least, and probably a far larger proportion, would unhesitatingly declare their preference for some new candidate And yet in utter contempt of the popular sentiment of the party, and disdainfully rejecting the only equitable as well as practicable mode of arriving at the will of the majority through the medium of a fair, equal, and uniform popular representation in the nominating convention, the friends of Mr Van Buren (holding on to that old machinery of party discipline and subordination, derived to them from the cunning order of the Jesuits, through the bloody Jacobinical clubs of revolutionary France by which one or two active spirits are enabled to suppress the will and control the movements of vast and entire bodies of men,) imperiously declare that he, and he only, shall be the candidate of the party Is it not time that honorable and patriotic men, as they respect the dignity of their own characters, the privileges of freemen, and the sacred principles of republican government, should unite in one generous and virtuous struggle to overthrow, effectually and forever, the tyranny of a system which, if now submitted to, must finally convert our noble popular institutions into the worst of all dominations—that of an unscrupulous and sordid party oligarchy

And what are the wise and benignant measures of administrative policy which are promised us as the fruits of Mr Van Buren's restoration? A return to the glories and blessings of the Sub-Treasury system—renewed war upon the currency, commerce, and business of the country Just at the moment when, by the mere fact of the withdrawal of the hostility of the Government, and that vis medicatrix naturæ which is inherent in the energies of a free enterprising, and industrious people, all the business pursuits of the nation are regaining their prosperity and activity, and the currency and exchanges of the country are finding their proper and natural level, every thing is to be again thrown into confusion, and we are to be replunged into a chaos of wild and pernicious experiments, simply to signalise a remorseless party triumph, in the consummation of a measure openly at war with every great practical interest of the community

And to this would be added, by a natural and necessary connexion, all that long train of congenial abuses which so ingloriously illustrated the era of Mr Van Buren's former administration—multiplied schemes for extending Executive power and President patronage, profuse and profligate expenditures of public money, the impunity and protection of faithless public officers, purchased by the merit of their party services, a new brood of defaulters of the Hoyts and the Harrises—a race, the entire disappearance of which since 1840 is one of the proudest proofs of the justice and necessity of the change then decreed by the voice of the people But it were vain to attempt an enumeration of the teeming abuses that must ever attend the fundamental heresy of Mr Van Buren's political system, which instead of regarding government as a high and holy trust for the good of the country, sees in it nothing but a job to be administered for the benefit of a party of which the President is the head and grand almoner

Now, I would ask, what is there to be apprehended from Mr Clay's election, which ought to have the weight of a feather in the scale, when compared with the fatal and destructive evils, pressing to vital elements of republican freedom and virtue, as well as the essential sources of national prosperity and happiness, which we have every reason to believe would inevitably follow the restoration of Mr Van Buren We shall, doubtless, have paraded before our eyes, in stereotyped horrors, the old and threadbare apparition of the tariff, the bank, and distribution On the subject of the tariff I do not hesitate to say that Mr Clay's creed, developed in his recent letters, is in every respect as just, as sound and unexceptionable as that of Mr Van Buren, and his practice infinitely better Mr Clay did not vote for or approve the tariff of 1828, consigned to an odious celebrity, under the name of the bill of abominations, which Mr Van Buren and his friends carried by their votes It is rather an unfortunate coincidence considering the professions of Mr Van Buren, that all the tariffs which have been most complained of in the South owe their existence upon the statute book to the votes of himself or his friends

It is no want of charity, then, but the result of the most candid and deliberate consideration, when I express the decided opinion that Mr Clay is far more to be relied upon for a practical adjustment of this delicate and complex subject, on terms just and satisfactory to all sections of the Union, (harmonizing their various interests by the golden rule of moderation, which is the only pledge of permanence and stability in any arrangement that may be made) than Mr Van Buren The wise and temperate spirit so strikingly exhibited in his letters which have been recently given to the public, sustained by his well known influence with his friends [illegible] own high and unquestioned character for frankness and decision, is a guaranty which [illegible] the nation will [illegible]

With respect to the bank, if the country [illegible] be reduced to a choice between the [illegible] Sub Treasury scheme [illegible] institution of finance properly guarded [illegible] by the [illegible] restrictions of its charter as well as by a vigilant public supervision and control, I do not believe that the sober judgment of the people [illegible] under the pressure of such an alternative, would find any cause of [illegible] from constitutional [illegible] on the subject [illegible] for the latter [illegible] And as to the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands that [illegible] stands [illegible] a practical question until the revenues of the na tion, compared with its expenditures and engagements, shall be in a very different situation from that in which they now are, or are likely to be for years to come.

My own individual opinions on these subjects have been so often and fully stated that I need not repeat them here. What I mean to say at present is, that these are issues either hypothetical and speculative, or neutralized by equal and opposing considerations on the other side, and should not divert the mind for a moment from those higher and more urgent and vital questions, which are the true tests of a sound and correct decision in the pending Presidential election. Those tests I have already adverted to. They are such as are inseparably connected with the purity, character, and preservation of the Government itself, and in my humble judgment are overwhelmingly conclusive against the pretensions of Mr Van Buren.

As little shall we permit ourselves, I trust, to be "frightened from our propriety" by the old and hollow expedient of a senseless and arbitrary use of party names. Those who are so prone to ring the changes on the nomeclature of Federalist and Republican would do well to remember that they have men, reading and inquiring men, to deal with, and not children. Try Mr Van Buren and Mr Clay by any test derived from the authentic history of political parties in this country, or by the standard of those great principles which exist in the essential elements of our popular institutions, and Mr Clay stands before the world the far better republican of the two,

In that great array and struggle of the two parties of the country (among the most memoriable in our history) which arose out of the controversy and war with England in 1812, where was Mr Clay and where was Mr Van Buren? Mr Clay gallantly leading the Republican hosts in the House of Representatives, and sustaining the administration of Mr Madison with all the energies of his patriotism, and eloquence; Mr Van Buren uniting with the Federalists to depose that illustrious man from power, and to supplant his administration! Try them again by that standard which Mr Van Buren himself, in a most elaborate speech delivered in the Senate of the United States in 1828, declared to be the true and legitimate distinction between the federal and republican parties,—the one seeking to extend, the other to restrain, Executive power.

The public have not forgotten the various schemes so sedulously devised or countenanced by Mr Van Buren during the whole period of his Administration, and fully exposed at the time, to augment Executive patronage, discretion, and power; and nothing, surely, has more eminently distinguished the career of Mr Clay than his constant and persevering efforts to restrain, and to provide new dikes and securities against the enlargement or abusive exercise of the powers of that department of the Government. Judging them, then, by Mr Van Buren's own definition of political parties, as correctly laid down by him in 1828, but totally lost sight of in his subsequent practice, let the sober and impartial judgment of the country decide which is the Federalist and which the Republican.†

It is impossible for any reflecting man to contemplate the actual and prospective condition of the country without seeing in it already the germ of new difficulties and troubles which may, in their approaching development, agitate our glorious Union to its centre. The Oregon and Texas question in our foreign relations; at home, a deficient revenue, with all its ordinary sources pressed up to their farthest productive limit, and some of them, there is reason to apprehend, beyond; the tariff controversy re-opened, with all the conflicting interests and passion which never fail to be awakened by it; and, added to these, the rekindled fires of the abolition excitement—each and all of them are questions which carry in their bosom the fearful elements of civil discord and intestine strife. The worst and most dangerous aspect they present is, that all of them bring into immediate and opposing array, if not into angry and hostile collision, the sectional interests and feelings of the different geographical divisions of the confederacy.

Whose, at such a moment, is the master spirit that may have power to still the rising tempest before it sweeps with destructive fury over the face of our yet happy Union; or, should this prove hopeless and impossible, whose the commanding genius "to ride the whirlwind and direct the storm?" To preside over the destinies of a great republic, in a crisis of such complicated difficulty and peril, calls for something more than the arts of the mere party politician. It demands the highest moral and intellectual qualities of the tsatesman—courage, self possession, elevation of character and elevation of views—a nobleness and generosity of nature that attracts confidence and can inspire enthusiasm; the spirit of persuasion and the spirit of command combined. Let the annals of the country, in some of the darkest moments which have ever lowered upon its fortunes, be consulted, and they will answer whether Henry Clay or Martin Van Buren is the man for such a crisis.

I have thus, my dear sir, with the frankness due to our relations of friendship, personal and political, given you my views on a subject which is soon to absorb so large a portion of the public attention, and to which no good citizen can be indifferent. I flatter myself they will meet your concurrence, and that of our republican friends who have acted with us in the trying scenes through which we have passed; but in any event, I am sure they will be received by you with the kindness and cordiality, in the spirit of which I pray you to believe me, most truly and faithfully, yours,

W. C. RIVES.

Col. Edmund Fontaine, Hanover.

*Mr Fox, in his History of James II.

†In the speech alluded to (made on the 12th of February, 1828 on the powers of the Vice President as presiding officer of the Senate,) Mr Van Buren comments on the "attempt" of Mr Adams in his inaugural address, "to trace the origin of the two great political parties," "which," he adds, "have divided the country from the adoption of the constitution to the present day;" and, after rejecting Mr Adams' theory, he gives his own in the following words: "They, (the two great political parties of Federalist and Republican,) arose from other and very different causes. They are, in truth, mainly to be ascribed to the struggle between two opposing principles, that have been in active operation in this country from the closing scene of the Revolutionary War to the present day—the one seeking to absorb, as far as practicable, all power from its legitimate sources, and condense it into a single head; the other, an antagonist principle, laboring as assiduously to resist the encroachments and limit the extent of Executive authority."

The Season.

Old winter's come in earnest,
Look how the churlish weather
Is scattering about us
Ice and snow together,
The nightly winds marauding
Like a gang of thieves,
Have striped the "book of nature"
Of nearly all its leaves.
Hushed are the frogs and crickets,
The birds no longer flit,
For they have had, like tenants,
Due notices to quit.
The skies are fickle-minded,
They scowl by turns and smile,
Yet smile so grudgingly, they seem
Half scowling all the while.
But let no one presume to say,
That Nature is perverse;
If you had power to change her course,
You'd only make it worse.

DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1844.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HENRY CLAY,

OF KENTUCKY

☞ SEE FIRST PAGE.

Claims for Defence of Northeastern Frontier—Correspondence of the Agent—Gov. Kavanagh—Sharp Points, &c.,

Gov Kavanagh, caused to be printed for the Legislature various documents in relation to the claim of the State against the General Government under the treaty—the removal of the troops from Fish River—the town court bill—making a pamphlet of about 100 pages.

The report of the Agent of this State in relation to the claims, (Samuel L. Harris, Esq.,) is full and satisfactory. He appears to have acted with intelligence and faithfulness and assiduity. He arrived in Washington on the 6th of April, charged with a letter from the Governor to Mr Webster, then Secretary of State, Mr Webster was absent and did not return for several weeks. When he did return Mr Harris called on him, and he complains in his report of his reception. Whatever may be thought of the justice or utility of the statement, it cannot be denied that Mr Harris talks plainly. He evidently has not studied much in the school of diplomacy. He says

"From the correspondence with, and the assurance made to, the Maine Commissioners, during the pendency of the negotiation of 1842 in relation to the northeaster boundary, it was believed that the then Secretary of State would be disposed to render every facility in his power to carry out the provisions of the Treaty in a liberal and satisfactory manner. So deeply impressed was the Executive, that such would be the case, that it was deemed of the highest importance to the interests of Maine that her claim should be presented before Mr Webster left the State Department. Your Agent regrets to state that these impressions proved to be erroneous, and that the Secretary appeared disposed to embarrass, rather than to aid an equitable settlement of our claim. Having communicated to the Executive the result of this interview, in my letter of the same date, it is not considered necessary to recapitulate the facts here.

The further negotiation of the business having been left to my discretion, and being authorized by the Governor's letter of the 25th of April, to take such measures as circumstances might require, I did not deem it consistent with my duty, nor becoming the dignity, or interest of Maine, to solicit from the then Secretary of State any further action in relation to her claim, particularly as his retirement from that department was an event daily expected to occur.

Mr Webster resigned on the ninth and left Washington on the seventeenth of May. After his departure, I found no difficulty in obtaining the proper authority to give the desired direction to our claim; and on the twenty first presented our accounts to the Auditor for the Diplomatic Bureau, who assurred me that they should receive immediate attention.

Mr Harris says that he has obtained the allowance of all the posse claims and expenses (except the mere trifle of $35,77 cts.,) viz 213,045, 05, all of which except, $6,110,26, has been paid, this last sum not yet appropriated.

"The following statement exhibits the amount that has been received from the United States during the present year, on account of the claims of the State of Maine:

For military expenditures, in part,	76,786 73
For indemnity under the fifth article of the treaty of Washington,	150,000 00
For expenses of the civil posse and other treaty claims,	206,934 79
Aggregate.	$433,721 52"

The balance claimed on the military accounts and not yet allowed is 127,902 95

The correspondence between Gov. Kavanagh and the President in relation to the removal of the troops, has a very abrupt termination. J. M. Porter, Esq., Secretary at War saw fit to indulge in the following low and vulgar and unfounded statements in his letter to Gov. K.,

"I do not think that under ordinary circumstances, the troops of the United States should be called upon to perform the police duty of guarding the property of a State or of individuals from expected trespasses, nor to aid in enforcing instruction to an "ignorant and uninformed" portion of the population. It is for these purposes that we are asked to order back the troops, and they do not appear to be objects which under the circumstances, would authorize the constituted authorities of the Union to order a military force anywhere."

To this Gov. Kavanagh, in the spirit of a magistrate, who felt that his State had been insulted in a letter to the President says:—

"Without entering, at this time into a further consideration of the subject, I shall content myself simply with the remark, that the tone and temper of the last paragraph of the Secretary's communication to me, are such as to prevent my acknowledging its receipt to him, or having any further communication with him, on this, or any other subject whatever."

This of course closed the correspondence.

By beginning at the H in the centre of the following table, the words "How does the Printer live" (about equal to the sources to which he has to look for a living) may be read two thousand ways.

☞ The Mercantile Association oponed their Reading Room last evening. On invitation of the officers we attended and listened with much interest to addresses made by a large number of the members. The occasion was one of much interest, the meeting was numerously attended and the benefits resulting from the association were presented in a variety of interesting forms. We only intended to stop a few minutes for the purpose of examining the room, but the speaking was so attractive that we spent most of the evening.

Steamboat Disaster—Lives Lost.

☞ We commend to the attention of our readers the admirable letter of Mr Rives, copied into our columns.

The Honesty of the Washington Globe, the mouth piece of Mr. Van Buren.

The following article from the Washington Whig Standard displays the dishonesty of the Globe in strong colors. The article should be read and remembered, because if the Globe will resort to such means, for the purpose of exciting prejudice, when its own partizans in Congress come out against it, it proves itself unworthy confidence and its statement should be rejected with scorn and contempt.

Here is the article:—

For a few weeks past the Globe has been making the most violent, and unprovoked attacks upon the Hon. John Davis, of Massachusetts, because he has been employed by the State of Illinois and the holders of her bonds in England, mutually, to endervor to bring about an arrangement, by which the latter shall advance money enough to the State to complete some of the improvements, canals, railroads, &c., which she had began, nearly finished, but for want of means was compelled to leave in an unfinished, and, of course, unproductive condition. Could such an arrangement be accomplished, it is obvious to all that the millions which Illinois had expended upon her improvements, and which, without further expenditure, would be entirely thrown away, would become productive capital to the State, and enable her to pay the interest at least on her debt, and redeem her honor and credit, to say nothing of affording the facilities of easy and cheap transportation to her citizens for their immense agricultural productions to market, and of goods brought into the State for consumption in return. Could any man see harm in such an arrangement? On the contrary, would it not be productive of immense advantage to the people of Illinois? Most assuredly, and therefore the good people of that State, of all parties, rejoiced at the prospect of bringing it about, and gave Governor Davis, when he came to the State for the purpose mentioned, a most cordial and unfeigned welcome. Poor souls! they did not know that he came to buy them all up!—never dreamed of such a thing until the Globe raised the cry of "BRITISH INFLUENCE!" They never thought they were to become the slaves of British widows and orphans—it may be even a few, very few Lords—by making an arrangement by which they could pay their debts honestly, and increase the value of their farms, at the same time that they facilitated travel in the State, and removed those objections which now prevent emigrants from locating themselves in that State. No such thing. They did not preceive or dream that no influence but "British influence" could induce them to be honest and just both to themselves and their creditors! No; they were too blind or unsuspicious until they were told so by the Globe, and not even then.

But the peculiar "honesty" of the Globe, to which we are particularly desirous to call public attention, is manifested in its report of Mr. Wentworth's remarks in Committee of the Whole on Tuesday. Mr. Wentworth acted the part of an honest man in defending Governor Davis against the assaults of the Globe, and in bearing testimony to his high character for honesty—proverbial honesty and integrity.

"Mr. W said he wished to be permitted to make an allusion to some remarks which he had seen in different papers in relation to the project and the negotiation thereon in his own State, of binding together the different portions of our common country—he alluded to the completion of the Illinois and Michigan canal, and to the recent appointment of Governor Davis to investigate that subject. Opposed to him as he was in principle, he was rejoiced at this appointment, and any allusion to political influences in this matter he must repel as an assault upon the dominant party there. The dominant party had taken, as was natural, a suitable man of the other party, so that in this great measure of national importance all political clases should be avoided, and both parties be united in this great and grand object of connecting together the waters of the Gulf of Mexico with the upper lakes and with the Atlantic ocean. Mr. W. had no fear of the integrity of the State, of its being bought with British gold: that State had been tried, and it was too late to be apprehensive of attacks of this kind upon it. He rejoiced to say that the day was coming when that State would rise into a new character as a debt-paying and interest-paying State. And while much was said upon repudiation in various sections of this country, Mr. W. for one, and his colleagues with him, and the people of his State with them, were in favor of rising in the great cause of placing that State immediately in the position of an interest-paying State—of a State which meant to pay its honest debts, and that meant to indicate her intention to do this by paying a little interest immediately. And for this purpose they threw aside all party bias, and ask all honest men to join them in this undertaking."

Now, reader, would you believe that the Globe, which professes to give a true and correct report of the debates in the House, although it gives what purports to be the substance of Mr. Wentworth's remarks, has not one word of the above! No, not a single allusion to the name of Governor Davis, although this vindication was the principal object of his speech! And why should it? It had made false, malicious, and unfounded charges, why publish their refutation by one of its own party upon the floor of Congress, and thus proclaim its own mendacity and shame? But it shall not escape the brand Mr. Wentworth has put upon its brazen front: and that it may not, we call upon the whole Whig press of the country to republish this articles.

CONGRESS.

Washington, Saturday, Jan. 13.

The Senate did not sit to-day.

In the House, Mr Giddings desired to bring to the notice of the House, and to reply to an article in this morning's Globe, impugning (as he said) his honor and integrity.

Objections were made to the explanation, and after much conversation and much confusion, a motion of Mr Schenck of Ohio, to suspend the rules to allow—what had never before been denied a member of the House, he said—this explanation, was rejected: Yeas 92, Nays 57.

Mr Adams's report on the Rules of the House, with the pending motion of Mr Black of Ga., to amend the motion to recommit, by instructing the Committee to report the 21st rule, again came up.

Messrs Belser of Ala. and Cobb of Ga. argued in favor of the rule.

The subject was laid over at the expiration of the morning hour, and the debate with reference to improvements of Western navigation was resumed in Committee and continued by Mr Jameson of Mo during his hour.

The Committee then rose and the House adjourned.

☞ We were politely shown a letter received by mail last night, dated at Matanzas, Dec. 24. Lumber was selling at $20 and $21.

There were great fears of insurrection among the blacks, as a general spirit of discontent and insubordination prevailed.

LORRAINE'S PILLS.

OR VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINE

CURATIVE

OF THE

French College of Health, in Paris.

THE following letter was received yesterday by mail from Salem. It gives another evidence of the great success of Lorraine's Vegetable Universal Pills.

SIR—I have been for many years a sufferer from the ravages of Scrofula and Cancerous Humors, which at last seated on the vitals, and exhibited all the threatening symptoms of consumption. The general inutility of all remedies awakened my enquiries as to the thousand different methods of cure, to most of which I had recourse without receiving benefit. I accidentally noticed a remarkable cure by Lorraine's Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. I sent to Boston and got a box. By the use of them I found immediate relief and was soon restored to a perfect state of health.

J. E. NEWHALL.

Salem, 21st May, 1841.

The following letter from J. B. Light, Esq. is worthy of notice.

SIR—It ook one of Lorraine's Vegetable Pills last evening for a pain in my head, that had effected me for several days, occasioned by taking cold. I soon felt very calm, and quiet, and a state of general repose came on which had great charms, and I enjoyed one of the most comfortable and refreshing nights rest that I ever did in my life. I rose in the morning in my usual state of health, and believe it is my duty to recommend this medicine.

Yours truly, J. B. LIGHT.

Nov. 20th, 1841.

[From Boston Daily Mail.]

Somebody wisely says, that a cap loaded with jewels and flowers will not cure the headache, nor gold chains prevent the consumption. Lorraine's Vegetable Pills have done both.

SIR—I have been effectually cured of a severe headache by the use of Lorraine's Pills.

SARAH NOYES.

SIR—My daughter had all the threatening symptoms of a Consumption, such as cough, pain in the side, &c., together with general debility, but has had her health restored by Lorraine's Pills.

Rev. J. KNIGHT.

New York City, Nov. 1, 1841.

Family Medicine.

SIR—I have used Lorraine's Pills in my family as family medicine, and I would most earnestly recommend them to all persons, as the best medicine that can be procured. I would not be without them—they operate mildly, and never fail to give immediate relief. Until I used these Pills I was obliged to pay from 2rom 25 to $100 per year for medicines and physicians, since then I have had no other doctor than Dr. Lorraine's Pills. JAMES NEAL.

Hartford, Conn. July 8.

Lame Back.

Sarah Snow was cured of a lame back in one day, when she had been unable to dress herself alone for two weeks.

Susan Jones of Boston, cured in 36 hours of lame back and side of three weeks standing.

Sick Headache.

Mrs. Bird of Providence says, that 'Lorraine's Pills have proved a real blessing to her It has surpassed any thing that has been brought to the public notice. I have been cured of a sick headache that had afflicted me for years, by the use of Lorraine's Pills.

THE CONDITION.

The condition upon which nature gives health to man, is a watchful care to keep his stomach and bowels free from morbid and unhealthy accumulations Lorraine's Pills admirably effect this, because they cleanse the bowels and purify the blood.

The human body is always healthy when the bowels are regular, the blood circulates freely, and disease invariably commences when obstructions take place in the bowels.

The extraordinary virtues of Lorraine's Pills depends upon extracts of over 50 different vegetables, all so admirably combined as to purify, nourish and invigorate the human system.

PATENT MILL WHEELS.

THE Subscriber having for a long time given his attention to the construction and operation of Water Wheels, has finally succeeded in the invention of two kinds of Wheels for which he has received Letters Patent from the Government of the United States.

These Wheels are simple in their construction, cheap and durable, are easily put in operation, and are not liable like most other wheels to get out of order, they are not obstructed by back water, when the head is not diminished thereby; and the same power and speed is obtained, with about one half the quantity of water usually applied to wheels now in general use.

A great number of these Wheels are now in operation and give in all cases entire satisfaction; and for further information respecting them the following gentlemen are referred to, all of whom have some of said wheels in operation: Jacob Drummond, James B. Fiske, Amos Davis and Leonard March, Esqrs., Messrs. Fiske & Norcross, Foster & Gilman, S. P. & H. Strickland, W. T. & H. Peirce & Co. Bangor; Hon. J. S. Little, Portland; Hon. John Otis, Hallowell; F. A. Butman, Esquire, Dixmont; Robert Treat, Geo. A. Peirce, Esquires, Frankfort; Daniel Dennett, Esq. Milo; Col. Henry Orne, Milton; Messrs. Fiske & Bridge, Milford; Ira Wadleigh, Esq. Oldtown; Capt. R. Fittz, Dedhams John Black and John M. Hale, Esqrs. Ellsworth;—Messrs. A. Campbell & Co. Cherryfield; Daniel Harwood, Esq. Machias; Levi L. Lowell, Calais.

The above wheels are manufactured and for sale at the Iron Foundries of MESSRS. HINCKLEY & EGERY and FRANKLIN MUZZY & Co. in this city, who are furnished with a great variety of patterns, so that Wheels of any particular description, or adapted to any given head of water, can be furnished at short notice. They are also authorized to dispose of the Patent Right for the same.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO CONSUMPTIVES!

THE Time has come when Consumption may be classed with the curable diseases.

The Subscriber announces the gratifying intelligence that he is constantly receiving from England large supplies of Bucan's Hungarian Balsam of LIFE!

The ONLY compound known to the Medical Faculty which will effect a speedy and permanent cure of that dreadful malady, CONSUMPTION!

AND ALL DISEASES OF THE PULMONARY ORGANS.

For the last six years the Hungarian Balsam has been in extensive use in Great Britain, and throughout the Continent of Europe, where it has completely astounded the Medical Faculty by its unparalleled success in the cure of the most of Consumption ever brought under their notice.—In England it has cured thousands upon thousands; of all classes, in cases of the most dangerously Consumptive character; and the English papers are full of extravagant eulogiums upon it, and upon its distinguished authors.

This Balsam has also been introduced into the practice of some of the best Hospitals, Infirmaries and other Institutions in Great Britain, and has received the public sanction of the most distinguished Chemists and Professional men, as the of Pulmonary Diseases in the whole range of Pharmacy.

A Committee of seven of the most celebrated Physicians of London, who were requested by Dr. Buchan to give their unbiased opinions of his Balsam, have, under their own names, unreservedly pronounced it an

UNRIVALED SPECIFIC:

And they unhesitatingly recommend it to be kept in every family of a CONSUMPTIVE TENDENCY. The joint certificate of these Physicians accompanies each bottle of the Balsam.

Dr. Buchan has been elected an honorary member of the prominent Medical Societies of Europe, and his Balsam is now so well established that liberal minded men, in the Medical profession, prescribe it for their patients, as the for Pulmonary complaints and physical debility—and it is universally received as one of the standard medicines of the day.

BEST OF ALL REMEDIES

The great merit of Dr. Buchan's Balsam is this: in all cases of Pulmonary complaints it gives

IMMEDIATE RELIEF.

A single bottle will reveal its astonishing virtues; and open at once the fountain of health and strength to the afflicted.

Price of the Balsam only $1 per bottle, with full Directions, Dissertation on Consumption; Notices and Certificates of Remarkable Cures, &c.

NEW PRINCIPLES OF PURGATION!

CORNARO'S

Purifying and Preserving PILLS.

THE American public has for a long time been the victim of a false and dangerous system of medicine founded on the practice of LONG CONTINUED AND UNRELIEVED PURGATION. The evils of this old system are of the most widespread and alarming character. They have reached through every vein and artery of our nation.—In every city, and village, and hamlet—in every State and Territory of our vast Republic, will be found those who have suffered, or who are still suffering from the injurious effects of this old system, of whose practical utility the disease, decay, and utter prostration of those who test it furnish the most condemning proofs!

COMMON DRASTIC PURGATION

Scours out the system by the most improper and violent means, and then leave it, weak, low, feeble debilitated, to regain its strength as best it may.—Sometimes the consequences of this old Purgative practice are worse than mere Debility. Inflammation of the Bowels, Slow Fever, Bloody Piles, and other horrible disorders are produced, simply from the want of some enlivening and preserving power in the medicine employed. Sometimes the digestive organs are deeply and permanently injured by this course and unphilosophical practice, leaving the patient AN INVALID FOR LIFE.

The alarming evils and absurdities of the old system of Purgation, have led to the introduction of a new Life-giving Medicine, called CORNARO'S PURIFYING AND PRESERVING PILLS, which are established on this new and only true principle of Purgation, viz:

NO PURGATION WITHOUT IMMEDIATE RESTORATION.

The use of this admirable Purgative remedy strikes a death blow to that abominable system, which by continually evacuating the bowels without any conservative or saving power, so dreadfully and fearfully prostrates and injures the unhappy patient. These Purifying and Preserving Pills are believed to constitute the perfection of medicine, being a UNIVERSAL VEGETABLE PURGATIVE, containing two great remedies combined, viz: One remedy to PURIFY FROM CORRUPTION, and another to PRESERVE FROM INJURY AND DECAY.

And for the purpose of attaining the highest degree of purity in the preparation of these Pills, Dr. Bradlee has, at a vast expenditure of time and money, invented and patented at Washington, a chemical and philosophical apparatus for distilling and refining vegetable extracts, called

THE SEVEN-FOLD FURNACE,

A powerful and novel machine—having Seven Fires and Seven Alembics, with distilling, condensing and evaporating fixtures of a new and ingenious contrivance, capable of obtaining more than seven times the ordinary purity of any vegetable extract heretofore used in compounding medicine The Balsamic and Preserving power of these Pills is also, by this invention, highly purified and refined and so mingled with the operative medicine, that it repairs all the injuries created by Purgation as soon as they are caused, and strongly fortifies the system against future corruption and decay.

Let the public be no longer deceived by the advertisements of the "one remedy" doctors, who show their entire ignorance of the organic laws of the human system by supposing that a medicine which purges merely, without renovating or preserving, can be a perfect remedy. For it is a fixed and immutable law of our being that there should be, in no case Purgation without immediate Restoration; and hence it follows, and is proved to demonstration, that all Purgatives which DO NOT possess a saving and preserving power, are injurious, and injurious only, and possess NOT ONE REDEEMING QUALITY.

The whole theory of common drastic Purgation is based upon unnatural and absurd laws, and they who follow it fall victims to their own folly, and too late repent their temerity.

☞ BEWARE OF UNRELIEVED PURGATION! Purge and Preserve, or do not attempt to Purge at all.

☞ The celebrated PURIFYING AND PRESERVING PILLS purify the body from corruption and preserve it from injury and decay by a single operation. They are a Universal Vegetable Purgative, of sovereign use in all diseases of the human system in which purgation is required, particularly in Jaundice Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Eruptions of the Skin, Scrofula, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Disorders, Liver Complaint, Fevers, Nervous Disorders, Jaundice, Weakness, Cholic, Dysentary, Worms, Gout, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Depression of Spirits, Debility of System, Fits, &c., &c.

☞ Price 25 cents per Box, with full directions, Essay on Health and Long Life, &c.

Sold, wholesale and retail, by the sole proprietor D. F. BRADLEE, 79 Court Street, corner of Bromfield street, Boston.

DR. TAYLOR'S BALSAM OF LIVERWORT.

PRICE REDUCED

DR. TAYLOR'S Balsam of Liverwort, 375 Bowery, New York—for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, Asthma, Soreness of the Chest, Pain in the side and Breast, raising Blood, Liver complaint, Bronchitis, and all the affections of Throat and Lungs which are a source of so much suffering and unarrested, so often terminate in Consumption—this remedy is highly and justly distinguished. It is purely vegetable, mild and gentle in its effects upon the system, and may be taken in the most delicate cases, with safety as well as utility. Physicians, aware of its medicinal properties, and witnessing its effects even in the extreme and in some instances apparently almost hopeless cases, often prescribe it in their practice, both as a palliative and a remedy, and with the Medical Faculty generally it has met with great approbation.

CONSUMPTION.—The following remarks were taken from the last number of the Medical Magazine:

"The surprising effect produced by the genuine Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, made at 375 Bowery, in consumptive cases, cannot fail excite a deep and thrilling interest throughout the world. We have so long considered this disease (consumption) incurable, that it is difficult to credit our senses when we see persons, evidently consumptive restored to health. Yet it is a fact of daily occurrence."

Certificates from the highest and most respectable sources, or persons who have been greatly relieved by it, or entirely recovered of affections of the Lungs and Liver, could be furnished in abundance, but we insert only the following

CERTIFICATE.

Liver Complaint and General Debility. I was given up by two physicians, and told to prepare for death. I was so weak I could not raise my head. I was in this low state, when a friend sent me a bottle of Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, from 375 Bowery, and before I had used the bottle, I was able to sit up in bed. By the further use I have completely regained my health.
